

Violence...

WE HAVE A
Zero Tolerance
POLICY

- SAMPLE
- This Company will never tolerate violent conduct or actions of any kind.
 - No employee or anyone associated with this Company should ever feel threatened by another's conduct or actions.
 - We specifically prohibit the possession of weapons by anyone on Company property.
 - It is your duty to report all incidents of violence AND all indications of potential violence to your supervisor, immediately.
 - We will investigate all violent incidents/reports and take disciplinary action when necessary. This may include termination of employment.
 - Information gathered in any investigation will be held private and distributed only on a "need to know" basis.
 - Consult your supervisor for comprehensive details on our Policy and Procedures.
